Washington Pastor Honored Again at Convention in Maryland.

News was received in Washington today that the Rev. Charles F. Stock, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Epiphany, was for the third time elected president of the Maryland Lutheran Synod, which is holding sessions this week at Smithsburg, Md. Mr. Stock has been pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church here for about one year, coming to this city from Frederick, Md. Other Washington pastors who are attending the convention are the Rev. Dr. John Wedley, of the Church of the Reformation; the Rev. C. P. Wiles, of Keller Memorial Church; and the Rev. John T. Huddle, of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church.

WOMEN OFFICIALS DISCUSS FINANCES

Supreme Officers of Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association in Convention.

Representing 130,000 Catholic women of America, the supreme officers and trustees of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association, today held two business sessions at the Shoreham Hotel, for the purpose of investing certain moneys of the national reserve fund of the organization, and letting contracts for printing and supplies. The organization, which was the first general woman's society in America, added out to its beneficiaries on insurance policies during the past twenty years the sum of $3,000,000. At present, its reserve fund amounts to $1,635,283.93, invested in bonds and mortgages. The society is divided into 1,100 branches, and is controlled entirely by women. The meetings at the Shoreham today were presided over by Miss Kate Mahoney, of Troy, N. Y., supreme president of the association. Those who took part in the sessions were Mrs. J. A. Royer, Erie, Pa., treasurer; Mrs. M. E. Costello, Brooklyn, treasurer; Mrs. Bertha McEntee, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Julia Ward Cling, Chicago; Miss Mary Early, Brooklyn; Mrs. Mary Quinn, Newark, N. J.; Miss Kate Gaughan, Cleveland; Miss Margaret Gallagher, New York, N. Y.; Mrs. M. A. Elmer, New York, N. Y.; and Miss Kate Gallagher, Cincinnati. A reception was held at the Shoreham last afternoon for the delegates and the District members of the organization.

The positions in Hawaii and Porto Rico command a salary of $1,200 a year. Applicants must show they are graduates of reputable veterinary colleges.

TACOMA RE-CENSUS NOT YET DECIDED

A decision by Secretary Nagel, of Commerce and Labor, as to a new census for Tacoma, Washington, which has been requested by the mayor and trade organizations of that city on account of "padding" exposures, will not be reached until next week. A committee from Tacoma, including the mayor, is expected here early in the week to confer with the President, Secretary Nagel and Census Director Durand. Mr. Nagel and Mr. Durand will confer on the subject this morning.

DOG IS UNMUZZLED; WOMAN PAYS FINE

Mrs. Carrie Drake, of 5th Tenth street northeast, was in the Police Court this morning on the charge of allowing her dog to run the streets of Washington without a muzzle. She testified that the reason that the dog was unmuzzled was the result of an accident. The animal, which is a small, light-colored dog, broke his muzzle a short time before. After some consideration, Judge Pugh imposed a fine of $5, saying that he would make the dog a muzzle for the case, as it was a first offense, and evidently accidental, but that others need not expect to get off as easily.

PORT OFFICIALS ON TRIP

CHERBOURG, Oct. 22.—Fearing that the White Star, North German Lloyd, and American line steamship companies will cease using Cherbourg as a port of call unless transportation facilities leading out of the city are improved, the mayor and a number of local notables have left for Paris to take immediate steps for the betterment of the service. They will ask a reduction of postage and the building of a better maritime station.

ALDRICH TO BE OUT WITHIN FEW DAYS

Senator's Physician Says He Was Not Seriously Hurt by Trolley Car.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, who was struck by a trolley car yesterday and badly bruised, is considerably improved today, and the physicians in charge of his case say there is little fear he will not entirely recover within a few days. The Senator spent a fairly comfortable night.

The mystery, which at first surrounded the accident, had started a number of rumors concerning the Senator's condition. When he arrived home his clothes were torn, he was hairless, and dirty, and the blood was streaming from the cut on his temple. Examination by the doctors showed that he was not seriously injured, but might suffer from the shock and general shake-up for some days.
